

BUSINESS CARDS.

JNO. E. HAMILTON,
Attorney & Counselor at Law,
N. E. COR. SEVENTH AND FOURTH STS.,
COVINGTON, KY.

WILL practice in the counties of Kenton,
Campbell, Pendleton, and Boone.
Collections also made in the city of Cincinnati
and county of Hamilton, State of Ohio.

KELSEY & ARNOLD,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
NEW LIBERTY, KY.

WILL practice in the counties of Owen, Carroll,
Gallatin, Grant, and Henry, counties.
Collections in any of the above counties promptly attended to.

Ben. J. Monroe,
Attorney and Counselor at Law, and General Land Agent,
LEAVENWORTH CITY, KANSAS.

WILL practice law in all the Courts of the Territory. Collections made in all parts of the Territory and Western Missouri, and remittances promptly made. Money invested and rents collected and remitted.

Dr. John L. Phythian,
HAYING returned to Frankfort, offers his professional services to the people of the town and adjoining counties.

A. J. JAMES,
Attorney and Counselor at Law,
FRANKFORT, KY.

OFFICE on St. Clair street, near the Branch
Bank of Kentucky.

JAMES P. METCALFE,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
FRANKFORT, KY.

WILL practice in the Court of Appeals, Office
on St. Clair street, over Dr. Speed & Keel-man's.

T. N. & D. W. LINDSEY,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
FRANKFORT, KY.

WILL practice law in all the Courts in Frankfort and the adjoining counties. Office on St.
Clair street, four doors from the bridge.

JOHN A. MONROE,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW
FRANKFORT, KY.

WILL practice law in the Court of Appeals, in the Franklin Circuit Court, and all other State Courts held in Frankfort, and will attend to the collection of debts for non-residents in any part of the State.

P. U. MAJOR,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
FRANKFORT, KY.

OFFICE on St. Clair street, near the Court House.
Will practice in the circuit courts of the 6th Judicial District, Court of Appeals, Federal Court, and all other courts held in Frankfort.

S. D. MORRIS,
ATTORNEY & COUNSELLOR AT LAW
FRANKFORT, KY.

PRACTICE in all the courts held in Frankfort,
and in the adjoining counties. He will attend particularly to the collection of debts in any part of the State. All business confided to him will meet with prompt attention.

JOHN M. HARLAN,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
FRANKFORT, KY.

OFFICE on St. Clair street, with James Harlan.

JOHN RODMAN,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
ST. CLAIR STREET,
Two doors North of the Court-house.

E. A. W. ROBERTS,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
FRANKFORT, KY.

WILL practice in the Franklin Circuit Court, and in the courts of the adjoining counties.
OFFICE east side of St. Clair street, next door to Mr. Harlan's office.

GEORGE E. ROE,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
GREENUPSBURG, KY.

WILL practice law in the counties of Greenup,
Lewis, Carter, and Lawrence, and in the Court of Appeals.

JOHN M. McALLA,
Attorney at Law, and General Agent,
WASHINGTON CITY, D. C.

WILL attend particularly to SUFFICIENT and REFLECTED CLAIMS—where based upon the want of official records.

CAPITAL HOTEL,
R. C. STEELE, Proprietor,
Frankfort, Ky.

H. WHITTINGHAM,
Newspaper and Periodical Agent,
FRANKFORT, KY.

CONTINUES to furnish American and Foreign Weeklies, Monthlies, and Quaterlies, on the best terms. Advance sheets received from twenty-four publishers. Back numbers supplied to complete sets.

B. F. DINKLE,
DEGS to inform his friends, and citizens of Frankfort and surrounding counties generally, that he is prepared to execute all descriptions of House, Sign, and Fancy Painting, in the best style, and on reasonable terms.

Jobs attended to in town and country, and satisfaction warranted in all cases. Orders left at the barber store of Mr. John H. H., next door to the Farmer's Bank, will receive the most prompt attention.

LOUISVILLE ADVERTISEMENTS.

NEW MUSIC HOUSE!
WM. McCARRELL,
MUSIC PUBLISHER

AND DEALER IN
PIANOS, MELODEONS
BOUND AND SHEET MUSIC,
Musical Instruments and Musical Merchandise
Generally.

No. 474 JEFFERSON STREET,
NORTH SIDE, BETWEEN THIRD AND FOURTH,
LOUISVILLE, KY.

HAVING JUST OPENED A NEW MUSIC HOUSE in this city, I beg leave to call the attention of my friends and the public generally to my stock, which is ENTIRELY NEW, and has been selected with great care. It shall be my aim to keep constantly on hand

The very Best and Latest Publications
And a fine assortment of
SUPERIOR PIANOS, MELODEONS, GUI-
TARS, VIOLINS, STRINGS, &c., &c.

Printed Catalogues forwarded on application.
Music sent to any part of the country, post paid, on receipt of the market price.
Those in want of new and good Music or Instruments will do well to give me a call, as I am determined to sell on the best terms.

WM. McCARRELL,
474 Jefferson street,
N. B. The friends and acquaintances of Mr. J. H. Mc-CANN will always find him at 74 Jefferson street, where he will be happy to fill their orders.

M. B. SWAIN,
MERCHANT TAILOR,
AND DEALER IN GENTLEMEN'S
FURNISHING GOODS,
No. 1 Masonic Building,
Louisville, Ky.

NATHANIEL WOLFE,
OF LOUISVILLE. S. N. HODGES,
LATE OF FRANKFORT.

WOLFE & HODGES,
ATTORNEYS & COUNSELLORS
AT LAW,
AND
COLLECTING AGENTS,
LOUISVILLE, KY.

Office on Centre Street, opposite the Court House.
over walt-wtf

Wooden Ware Store.
THE subscriber has established at Louisville a WOODEN STORE for the sale of all the varieties of

WOODEN WARE,
that now enter so largely into daily consumption.
His stock of Buckets, Tubs, Churns, Brooms, Hand
Whisks, Covered Cans, Washboards, Clothes
Pans, Measures, Sieves, Mops, Baskets, Matches,
Brooms, Tapered Covers, Covered Flour Buckets,
Fine Cedar Ware, Broom Cans, Twines, and Caskets
of all kinds, Brasies of all kinds, Wooden Bowls,
Bowl-Jars, Wares, Baking Pans, Wrapping
Paper, Ax Handles, Mule and Horse Manes, Clothes
Hampers, Cedar Chests, Toy Carts, &c., is large, and extensive in variety, and as low as in Cincinnati or St. Louis. A large part of the articles are made under his own supervision; and his stock is fresh, clean, and in salable condition. He hopes to receive a share of the Country Trade.

J. R. RUSSELL,
500 Main st., between Third and Fourth,
LOUISVILLE, KY.

NATIONAL HOTEL,
Corner Fourth and Main Streets,
LOUISVILLE, KY.

KNOTT & HARROW,
PROPRIETORS.

CARY & TALBOT,
SUCCESSORS TO
(HALL, TALBOT & CO.)
DRUGGISTS AND APOTHECARIES, PAINTS,
Oils, &c., 423 Market street, between Third and Fourth, Louisville, Ky.

Particular attention paid to Physicians' orders.

A. JAEGER & CO.,
IMPORTERS AND WHOLESALE DEALERS IN FRENCH CHINA.

GLASS and Earthenware, No. 239 Lake street,
Chicago, Ill., Nos. 119 and 121 Fourth street,
Mozart Hall, between Market and Jefferson streets,
Louisville, Ky.

HART, MAPOTHER & CO.,
Lithographers and Fancy Printers,
Southeast corner Market and Third Streets,
Louisville, Ky.

And No. 30 West Main Street, St. Louis, Missouri.
EXECUTE in the highest style of the art, every description of ENGRAVING, PEN AND CRAY-
ON LITHOGRAPHING, COLOR PRINTING, &c., &c.

JAS. P. MARSHALL,
NEW CARPET
AND House Furnishing Store.

MARSHALL & DICKINSON,
IMPORTERS & DEALERS,
79 FOURTH ST., BETWEEN MAIN AND MARKET
LOUISVILLE, KY.

WE are now opening an entire new stock, embracing every variety, style, and quality of handsome

Carpets,
Tassels,
Curtains,
Rugs, Mats,
Ladies and Coco Matting,
Shade Trimmings,
Curtain Chains,
Green Baisie.

Blankets all widths qualities and prices.
We also keep on hand and make to order Flags, Tarpaulins, Mosquito Bars, Bed Comforts, &c., &c. Our stock being entirely new, and having been selected with great care, we can offer such inducements in style, quality, and price as are seldom found west of the mountains.

MARSHALL & DICKINSON,
79 Fourth street, Louisville, Ky.

SAMUEL L. LEE,
J. W. OWEN,
Boots & Shoes,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL!

WE HAVE JUST RECEIVED a splendid assortment of Men's, Ladies', Misses' and Children's SHOES and GAITERS, which are intended to sell as cheap as any other house in the city.

SAMUEL L. LEE & CO.,
439 Market street,
second door above Fourth, Louisville, Ky.

HENRY WEHMBOFF,
UPHOLSTERER!
No. 517 South Side Main St., bet. 2d
and 3d.

CONSTANTLY on hand Curtains, Gases, Window
Shades, and Trimmings, Springs, Hair, Cotton, Moss, and Shuck Mattresses, Feather Pillows, and Bolsters.

IF all kinds of Upholstery done at short notice
and upon reasonable terms.

mar21 walt-wtf

LOUISVILLE ADVERTISEMENTS.

JOSEPH HADDOX ..... LOUIS HADDOX.
HADDOX & BRO.,
(SUCCESSORS TO JOHN R. HALL.)
COACH AND CARRIAGE BUILDERS,
Third st., east side, bet. Market and Jefferson,
LOUISVILLE, KY.

WE will manufacture and keep on hand CAR-
RAGES of every description and latest fashion.

TRIPP & CRAGG,
IMPORTERS, WHOLESALE AND RETAIL
DEALERS IN
PIANOS, MUSIC
AND
MUSICAL MERCHANDISE,
103 Fourth Street, between Market and Jefferson,
LOUISVILLE, KY.

N. B.—Catalogues sent postage free on application.
oct14 walt-wtf

G. C. CANON ..... M. W. SHERILL ..... D. C. CANON.
Canon, Henri L. & Co.,
WHOLESALE DEALERS IN NOTIONS, VARI-ETIES, and Fancy Goods, No. 439 Main St.,
two doors East of the Exchange Hotel, Louisville, Ky.

J. L. MOORE & SON,
MAIN STREET,
ARE receiving a large and carefully selected stock
of
Fall and Winter Goods,
in great variety—styles new and handsome: Carpeting, Oil Cloths, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Guns, &c., &c. They are determined not to reduce their stock to selling at greatly reduced rates. A liberal discount to CASH customers.

NEW YORK MACHINERY DEPOT,
222 Pearl Street, New York.

MILBANK & ANNAN,
(SUCCESSORS TO A. L. ACKERMAN.)
MANUFACTURERS AND DEALERS IN STEAM ENGINES
AND BOILERS, LEATHER AND RUBBER BELTING,
IRON AND WOOD

WORKING MACHINERY, AND MANUFACTURERS' ARTICLES, &c.
sep20 walt-wtf

NOW READY!
The New Code of Practice,
IN Civil and Criminal cases, for the State of Kentucky. Any one requiring one five dollars, shall receive a copy free of postage.

The above work for sale by S. C. BULL, Bookseller, Frankfort, Ky.

A CHANGE!
I HAVE this day sold my establishment to Mr. S. C.
BULL, and take great pleasure in recommending him to all my old friends and patrons.
January 3, 1859.

BOOKS, BOOTS, SHOES, &c.,
S. C. BULL,
(SUCCESSOR TO W. M. TODD.)

IF purchased this old and well-known establishment, and solicits a continuance of the patronage of its former customers, pledging himself that no pains shall be spared to give satisfaction to those who may favor him with a call.

ALE and BEER!
LEXINGTON BREWERY!!
THE undersigned, returning his thanks for the liberal patronage bestowed upon him heretofore, has decided to inform his customers, and the public in general, that having considerably enlarged his establishment, and furnished the same with all the modern improvements in machinery, apparatus, &c., he is now prepared to furnish a superior article of

ALE, BEER, Lager Beer, &c.
Distilled and bottled at all times with prime Barley, Malt, and Hops.

At the same time he takes pleasure in stating that Messrs. PRITCHARD & KALL have accepted the side business for the sale of his Ale and Beer for Frankfort and vicinity, and will always have on hand and for sale a sufficient stock of the same at manufacturer's price, freight and cartage added.

All orders entrusted to the same will be filled with promptness and dispatch.

EDGAR KEENE ..... JNO. N. CRUTCHER
KEENE & CRUTCHER,
DEALERS IN
Books & Stationery,
HATS, CAPS, BOOTS, SHOES,
STRAW GOODS,
Cumbrells, Notions, &c., &c.

Main street, Frankfort, Ky.

STOVES & TIN WARE.
F. C. SMITH.
Shop on St. Clair Street, in room formerly occupied by Morris & Thompson.

FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY.
HAVING just laid in a large stock of articles in my line of business, I would call the attention of my friends and customers to my stock. I will continue to furnish

Copper, Tin & Sheet Iron Work,
Spouting and Guttering
of all descriptions.

Continually on hand a large assortment of
COOKING, PARLOR & COAL STOVES.
All kinds of Roofing done to order.
IF all orders promptly attended to.

F. C. SMITH.

YOUNG GENTLEMEN
WANTING SOMETHING EXTRA IN THE WAY of a
Handsome Cloth Cap or Dress Hat, will do well to call and see those at

SAMUEL C. BULL'S.
Hat and Bookstore, St. Clair Street.

B. F. DINKLE
HAS removed his shop to Ann street, one door below John Young's building, residence, where he is prepared to execute all descriptions of HOUSE SIGN, and FANCY PAINTING, in the best style, and on the most moderate terms.

Jobs attended to in town and country, and satisfaction warranted in all cases. Orders left at the barber store of Mr. John H. H., next door to the Farmer's Bank, will receive the most prompt attention.

REMOVAL.
L. has removed his stock of Groceries to his new house on Lewis street, opposite C. G.
Graham's Livery Stable, where he invites all his old customers and as many new ones as wish to patronize him.

He keeps constantly on hand a choice assortment of Sugar, Coffee, Molasses, Spirits, Tobacco, Cigars, Liquors, and everything usually kept in a well stocked grocery establishment, which he proposes to sell
as cheap as any other house in the city.

L. TOHNS.
"Books and Stationery."
A CHOICE selection of the standard publications of the day—Law, Medical, and School—altogether with a large lot of fine stationery, at
sep24 walt-wtf

Vesper Gas.
WE are the Agents for the VESPER GAS, and are prepared to supply customers with Lamps and Coal Oil at manufacturers' prices. The public are invited to call at our store and examine these Lamps.

sep24 walt-wtf

W. H. KEENE & CO.

CINCINNATI ADVERTISEMENTS.

J. Le Boutillier & Brothers,
30 West Fourth street, bet. Main and Walnut,
CINCINNATI,
305 Canal street, New York | 812 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

IMPORTERS & RETAILERS
OF
SILKS,
Dress and Fancy Dry Goods,
RIBBONS and EMBROIDERIES. An examination and comparison is respectfully solicited.
One price, and no deviation. Terms—Cash.

F. W. Rauch,
PUBLISHER AND DEALER IN
SHEET MUSIC.
MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS, Strings, &c., 22 West
Fourth street, 3d door east of Vine, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Music band; Pianos tuned and repaired. Orders by mail promptly attended to. ap7 walt-wtf

DRY GOODS AND CARPET STORE.
JOHN SHILLITO & CO.,
Nos. 101, 103 and 105 West Fourth St.,
CINCINNATI, OHIO.

IMPORTERS OF
DRY GOODS AND CARPETING.
RESPECTFULLY inform their customers and purchasers generally that they are now opening an extensive and complete assortment of Dry Goods, Carpeting, Floor Oil
(Cloths, &c., &c.)

Families, Hotel Keepers, Steamboat owners, and all others may depend upon finding the best class of Goods, at prices as low as they can be purchased in the Eastern cities.

MANUFACTURERS' ARTICLES.
J. & C. REAKIRT,
52 Second Street, Cincinnati, O.

KEEP A FULL SUPPLY OF
Manufacturers' Articles,
Carding Machines,
Warp on Beam, assorted colors,
Machine Cards,
Wire Brooms and Frames,
Shuttles,
Steel Reels and Pickers,
Leaving and Picker Leather,
Harness Twine,
Hand Cards, Center Hooks,
Comb Plates, &c., &c.

ALSO, A FULL ASSORTMENT OF
Dye Stuffs,
Cudbear,
Madder,
Log Wood,
Ann. Wood, &c., &c.

DO YOU
DO YOU
DO YOU
WANT
WANT
WANT

EMPLOYMENT!
EMPLOYMENT!
EMPLOYMENT!

READ THIS!
I want an energetic man to canvass each County in the United States and Canada, and sell some new Historical, Biographical, and Literary Books, and finely executed Maps.

These works are sold exclusively by my own
Agents, and are never placed in Book Stores for SALE.

Since February 4th I have sent out 150 men to operate for these works, and "still there is room."
If you want a profitable employment, and at the same time an honorable ending, send me your address, and I will mail you, free of charge, my catalogue, terms to Agents, and the actual reports of some of my men who are at work, and leave you to decide if you, too,
may not make this business both agreeable and profitable. Address, MACK R. BARNES,
Book and Map Publisher, Cincinnati, Ohio.

"Let those Laugh who win."
If you would be astonished at quality and price, call and examine at Harrington Brothers, Balliet, Davis & Co.'s, 2nd
Raven, Bacon & Co.'s, and Peters
Cragg & Co.'s, Pianos at No. 66 West Fourth street.
All are for rent, and will let the rent for the Piano.

The largest stock of Melodions in the city.
oct20 walt-wtf

Christmas Present.
REMEMBER that Light & Reading is a pleasure, and a pleasure is a pleasure.
Pianos can be found only at 72 West Fourth street. I am offering unusual inducements for cash, or will rent, and let the rental for the Piano.

C. M. MURCH,
72 West Fourth street, Cincinnati,
Ohio.

The largest stock of Melodions in the city.
oct20 walt-wtf

MILLINERY.
BONNETS,
RIBBONS,
FLOWERS,
FEATHERS,
RUCHES,
HEAD DRESSES,
HAIR PINS,
CLOAKS,
And Other Millinery and Fancy
Goods,

of the latest Paris and New York styles, now open at No. 18 West Fifth street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

J. A. HENDERSON.

MARTIN NIXON ..... THOMAS NIXON ..... W. B. CHATFIELD.
NIXON & CHATFIELD,
(Successors to Nixon & Goodland)
Nos. 77 and 79 Walnut St., Cincinnati, MAKING AND WHOLESALE DEALERS IN PAPER, CARDS, AND CARD SHEETS,
PRINTING INKS,
AND PAPER MANUFACTURERS' MATERIALS.
ALSO, Agents for the Magnolia Mill Writing Papers.

Duhme & Co.,
Importers and manufacturers of
WATCHES, CLOCKS, JEWELRY,
Watch Movements, Tools and Materials, Silver and Plated Ware, Spectacles, &c., southwest corner of Fourth and Walnut streets, Cincinnati, Ohio.

LOOMIS & BURROWS,
130 Main Street, Cincinnati, Ohio, WHOLESALE DEALERS IN MARBLE AND SLATE STONE,
Roofing Slate, &c.
GRATES AND MANTLES,
BUILDING ORNAMENTS,
DRAINING TILES, PIPES, &c.

ARCHITECTS, Builders, and others interested in our wares will find it to their interest to examine our stock before purchasing elsewhere.

IF Descriptive Catalogues and Price List sent by application by mail.

LOOMIS & BURROWS.

The Cincinnati Type Foundry
AND
PROOFING ESTABLISHMENT
CORNER OF VINE AND LONGWALK STS.
CINCINNATI, OHIO.

Manufacture and furnish to order every variety of Printing Materials.

Our stock of Type is very large,
both in extent and variety, including all the styles of up to the latest Foundries as well as our own.

ALSO A GREAT VARIETY OF
HAND, JOB & POWER PRESSES,
OF OUR OWN AND OTHER MANUFACTURES.
Second-hand Type and Presses taken in exchange
at highest prices.

Applications for Specimen Books, (which are furnished gratis to the extent) should state the name and location of their office, and specify the number in which they may be sent, as they are too heavy for the mail.

L. J. Wells, Agent!

CINCINNATI ADVERTISEMENTS.

MAGNOLIA HOUSE,
MADISON ST., BET. PIKE AND SEVENTH,
COVINGTON, KY.

C. BLACKBURN ..... Proprietor.
Location Central; Accommodations Good; Charges
Moderate.

IF The patronage of the public is respectfully solicited. jec2 walt-wtf

ENGLISH
CARPETING
RINGWALT & AVERY,
IMPORTERS OF AND DEALERS IN OIL CLOTHS AND DRAPERY, PIKE'S OPERA HOUSE BUILDING,
No. 69 WEST FOURTH STREET,
CINCINNATI, OHIO.

RALPH C. McCRACKEN,
FASHIONABLE
SHIRT MANUFACTURER,
A No. 19 W. Fourth St., South Side, bet.
Main and Walnut, Cincinnati, O. (Opposite the first Presbyterian church.) Send me a Shirts, etc.

IF Shirts made to order by measurement and warranted to fit. jec2 walt-wtf

DAILY KENTUCKY YEOMAN.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY
S. I. M. MAJOR & CO.,
ST. CLAIR ST., OPPOSITE THE COURT HOUSE.
TERMS:—One copy per annum, in advance, $4.00.
FRIDAY, JANUARY 13, 1860.

THE KENTUCKY YEOMAN

FOR THE
Session of the Legislature

Daily, - - - $1.50, in advance.
Weekly, - - - 75 cts. in advance.

The Yeoman
Will be published DAILY AND WEEKLY during the approaching session of the Legislature. A competent Reporter has been engaged for each House, and a full and accurate report of each day's proceedings will be given. The Yeoman will also publish a summary of the Congressional proceedings, Commercial and Foreign News, and all the important items of the current news of the day.

We shall also continue to publish the most important DECISIONS OF THE COURT OF APPEALS from day to day, as they are delivered.

TERMS:—Daily, during session, - - - $1.50
Weekly, during session - - - 75
Ten copies Daily - - - 12 00
Ten copies Weekly - - - 5 00
Remittances may be made by mail at our risk.

Address S. I. M. MAJOR & CO.,
FRANKFORT, KY.

DAILY AND WEEKLY YEOMAN.—We will furnish the Daily Yeoman for the remainder of the session at $1 per copy, and the Weekly for the same time at fifty cents.

Extra copies of the Daily or Weekly can be had on application at the office, or to our reporters in the Senate or House. Price—Daily $2 per hundred—Weekly $4.

A bill reported by Col. Glenn, from the committee on Agriculture and Manufactures, to amend the act incorporating the Kentucky State Agricultural Society, is a special order for to-day, in the Senate. The bill provides for the continuance of the annual appropriation of $5000 to the Society for two years. Kentucky is emphatically an agricultural State, and if the Society has subserved the purposes and tended to the accomplishment of the aims for which it was originally established, we cannot think it inconsistent with a discriminating economy on the part of the Legislature to continue the comparatively small appropriation heretofore extended to it. If a generous spirit of rivalry in rearing the finest stock, and improving the staple products of the farm is promoted among our agriculturists by these annual fairs, let us have them, even if the State is called upon to contribute liberally to their support.

Properly managed, the Agricultural Society is an institution which must be productive of good to the farming interests of the State, and as the condition of the State finances does not demand retrenchment at this time, we should regret to see the Institution crippled by a withdrawal of the usual appropriation. The Society is yet in its infancy, and has not had a fair chance to develop its usefulness. Its means and resources have been limited, and of course its operations have been in a corresponding degree, unsatisfactory to many, yet we believe the Institution, with proper encouragement on the part of the Legislature, is destined to become a favorite with the people. If the Society should serve no other purpose than through its annual fairs to afford a splendid advertisement for the exhibitors of fine stock, it is a meritorious concern and deserves a further trial. We consider it wise and wholesome legislation by any legitimate means to encourage a love of improvement in agriculture. Much the greater portion of the revenue which swells our Treasury is derived from the farming class, a pitance might, with justice and even profit to the State, be given back to those from whom it was collected, to carry out the purposes for which the State Agricultural Society was established.

The report of the committee on Federal Relations was taken up in the House on yesterday, and adopted after considerable discussion. The 1st, 2d, 3d, 5th, 6th, and 7th resolutions of the series were adopted unanimously, and the 4th, 8th, and 9th were adopted by a party vote.

Church Directory.
Episcopal.—Rev. J. N. Norton, Rector. Services every Sunday at 11 o'clock, A. M., and 3 1/2 P. M.
Presbyterian.—Rev. Mr. Lacey, Pastor. Services at 11 o'clock, A. M., and 7 P. M.
Methodist.—Rev. Mr. Ryno, Pastor. Services at 11 o'clock, A. M., and 7 P. M.
Christian.—Elder W. T. Moore, Pastor. Services at 11 o'clock, A. M., and 7 P. M.
Catholic.—Rev. J. M. Lancaster, Pastor. Services at 11 o'clock, A. M.
Baptist.—Rev. J. B. Tinsley, Pastor. Services at 11 o'clock, A. M., and 7 P. M.

The New Orleans Metropolitan Burlesque Opera Troupe and Brass Band will open to-night at Odd Fellows' Hall for two evenings only. And also to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock for families and children, at reduced prices. For particulars, see advertisement and programmes.

CLOTHING.—Strangers in the city can find at the store of Schloss & Getz, corner of Main and St. Clair streets, a full assortment of winter clothing, such as overcoats, dress coats, pants, vests, &c., made in the latest fashions and out of the best material. They also keep a full supply of gentlemen's furnishing goods—shirts, cravats, handkerchiefs, underwear, &c., which they sell at the lowest prices.

To LAWYERS.—Our facilities for job printing are equal to any office in the West, and we are prepared to do all kinds of job work at the shortest notice. Lawyers' briefs, legal cards, blanks, &c., printed in the neatest styles and at prices as low as they can be done anywhere.

(Correspondence of the Yeoman.)
From Washington.

EDITOR YEOMAN: Gov. Winslow, of North Carolina, who is one of the leading men, and who certainly commands more attention than any man in the House, made the proposition yesterday that a committee of the Democrats, Americans and Anti-Lecompton men be formed for the purpose of agreeing to unite upon some gentleman in opposition to Mr. Sherman; but to intrustably obstinate are they, and so violent in their opposition to Democracy, that this expedient failed. Mr. Sherman is getting weak, and as a stimulant, Mr. Longworth has sent him 200 bottles of his famous Catawba. It is said Mr. Seward will arrive to-day, and that he will recommend a withdrawal of Mr. Sherman and the substitution probably of Mr. Corwin, who, on account of his being in favor of the fugitive slave law may receive sufficient American votes to elect him. The Republicans, however, will not hear of such a thing. They have staked the issue on Sherman, and will "stand the hazard of the die." One thing is certain and that is, that Sherman has received his full vote, and that is, that Sherman has received his full vote, and even upon an adoption of the plurality rule it is not certain that he could be elected. There are 237 members in a full House, and Mr. Sherman's greatest vote has been 110; and this vote was cast when it was very well known it would not elect him.

There will be a full ventilation of the Harper's Ferry affair, and all those who are in the slightest degree implicated will be brought before the Senate committee now in session, to give their testimony. The committee is composed of the ablest lawyers in the Senate, and they will give the witnesses such a searching cross-examination as to elicit from them everything they may know in relation to the matter, and it will be placed before the American people in such a light as to cause them to open their eyes to the dangerous tendencies of Republicanism. Before this affair the Republicans might have elected their candidate, but now, if the Charleston Convention give us a good man, we can elect him with ease. Such a man as Mr. Guthrie, a sound lawyer, energetic business man, conservative in all his views, his public and private character, without reproach, of an indomitable will and courage, and his whole life without a stain.

The union of Southern merchants not to deal with the North, is beginning to have its effect. The largest dry goods store in New York, on account of the falling off in their business, has discharged 50 of their clerks, and more will follow. A meeting of Connecticut manufacturers has taken place, to adopt measures to conciliate their Southern dealers, and have avowed a no-party feeling. No-party is more dangerous than party. It is a minority of voters in Massachusetts that control that State, and send their men here who do so much to irritate us. The Legislature of Massachusetts, I was told yesterday by a prominent Massachusetts man, is a disgrace to that State, and that no gentleman in Boston will receive a member in his house.

Why don't the people of Kentucky make application of their hatred of Republicanism on the person of Mr. Cassius M. Clay? Could he express his views before a Mississippi or Arkansas audience? It is a subject of comment here, that you make fish of one man, and fowl of another. The larger game flies the better the sport.

A petition has been presented to the New York Legislature to compel men to vote. By what Mr. Douglas terms "unfriendly legislation," they might be taxed very high perhaps, and thus reach the end.

Some of the members have lately been discussing privately the right of Mr. John Young Brown to take his seat when he arrives of age. They contend that a representative, when elected, should be of the constitutional age, (25) and illustrate their argument by a supposition if all the representatives were under age when elected, we could have no Congress. The provision in the Constitution ought to be stricken out, and the people should have the right to send whomsoever they chose.

Capt. Simms is winning golden opinions by his devotion to the interests of his constituency. He had important business at home during the holidays, but determined, at great personal sacrifice, to remain in his seat, though he had an offer to pair from a Republican. He exhibits untiring energy in the discharge of his duty as a representative, and when not engaged in the House, can in the shortest time frank and mail more public documents than any other gentleman in his position. Socially he is immensely popular.

FALL AND WINTER CLOTHING.—The season has arrived when gentlemen begin to look around for a supply of winter clothing, and we take occasion to call attention to the establishment of Messrs. Schloss & Getz, corner of Main and St. Clair streets. They have on hand a choice selection of gentlemen's clothing of all kinds—dress coats and pants, cassimere suits, vests, cravats, shirts, underwear, &c., all of the latest and most fashionable styles, made and selected with special reference to the wants of this community. They have been in business here for a long time, and are well posted as to the tastes of our people. They have a manufactory of their own in Cincinnati, and all their clothing is made under the immediate superintendence of one of the partners. Persons wishing to fit themselves out for the winter in good style, and for a little money, are recommended to give them a call.

COURT OF APPEALS.

THURSDAY, Jan. 12, 1860.

CAUSES DECIDED.
Moore v. Watkins, Laurel, reversed.
Pearl v. Chestnut, Laurel, affirmed.
Stivers v. McElroy, Laurel, reversed.
Stivers v. Sparks, Laurel, affirmed.
Payne v. Lincoln, Letcher, reversed.
Humble v. Taylor, Grant, reversed.
Alverson v. Smith, Madison, reversed.
Hamilton v. Jaff, Jefferson, reversed.
A. Madeira, of Covington, S. M. Bernard, of Hopkinsville, and J. H. Elliott, of Nelson, were admitted attorneys in this court.
Hawson v. Thompson, Nelson; cross appeal granted and exhibits proven.
Graves v. Bush's adm'r, Boone, rule to show cause why order of submission should not be set aside.
Henderson et al. v. Llane, Grant; petition for rehearing filed.
Shawver v. Harbour, Madison; fi fa endorsed.
Morehead v. Sharp, Muhlenburg; argued.
Marks v. Dickerson, Nelson; argued.
Minaker v. Foreman, Nelson; argued.
Clarkson et al. v. Jackson, Kenton; argued.
Patton v. Howard, Kenton; argued.
Shaw, Bael & Harbour v. Alexander, Lou. Ch.; argued.
Vattier v. Brown et al., Lou. Ch.; argued.
Anderson, McLean & Co. v. Young, Kenton; argued by Benton for appellee and Lindsey for appellant.
Jenny Lind has made up her mind to endure and erect an asylum for decayed singers. Otto, her husband, it is said, renders her uneasy, "he fights the tiger" fiercely, the wretch.

(From the Philadelphia Pennsylvanian.)
Principles vs. Prejudices.

We have heard much in the past few weeks, and in fact, occasionally for years, of the necessity for a "third" party, and have not been indifferent observers of the effort now being made to resuscitate and unite the scattered fragments of the old Whig and American parties into a new rallying point for those who, alarmed at the mad and unreasonable designs of the Black Republicans, are yet unable so far to overcome their prejudices as to unite with the Democratic party of the country in vindicating the supremacy of the Constitution and maintaining the rights of all the States of the Union. But the movement is likely to result in nothing but the necessity for it cannot be made apparent to the great conservative mind of the country. The effort itself is regarded as a strike between Principle on the one hand and Prejudice on the other; and such it is, and such only. The path of duty is plain and direct, but it is, it constructs the way, and this Prejudice is deterring men of otherwise lofty and patriotic purposes from lending their aid in the only way in which it can be effective, in crushing out the treasonable designs that threaten great wrong to members of a common Confederacy, and in the end a disruption of the Union. The Democratic party, the Democratic party that exists, it is solely the result of long antagonism to the principles of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter of the Union, but has planted itself upon the express stipulations of that party, often as bitter as it has been unjust; for the Democratic sentiment of the country, charged as it has been from the beginning with the guardianship of the Constitutional rights of all the States, has never sought to overrule a line or sentence of the great Charter

DAILY KENTUCKY YEOMAN.

KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE.

IN SENATE.

THURSDAY, JAN. 12, 1860.

Senate met at 10 o'clock, A.M., and was opened with prayer by Rev. Mr. RAND, of the Methodist Church.

The Speaker being absent, the Senate was called to order by the Clerk.

TEMPORARY SPEAKER.

Mr. ANDREWS moved that Senator Fisk be appointed temporary Speaker of the Senate during the absence of the Speaker, who is detained at his home by sickness in his family. Unanimously adopted.

The Journal of yesterday was read by the Clerk.

A RESOLUTION.

Mr. READ offered a resolution tendering the use of the Senate Chamber to the State Agricultural Society, at 7 o'clock this evening. Adopted.

Were presented by Messrs. CISELLE, ALEXANDER, DEHAVEN, GIBSON, TAYLOR (2), and RUST, and referred to appropriate committees.

REPORTS FROM STANDING COMMITTEES.

Mr. HAYCRAFT—From the committee on Religion—An act to incorporate the Joiners and Cabinet Makers' Benevolent Society, of the city of Louisville. Passed.

MOTION TO SUSPEND RULES.

Mr. GRUNDY moved a suspension of the rules in order to enable the committee on Agriculture and Manufactures to report a bill. Adopted.

Mr. GLENN—From the committee on Agriculture and Manufactures—An act to amend an act to incorporate the Kentucky State Agricultural Society. Passed.

Mr. FRALL moved to amend by striking out the second section of the bill, [appropriating $5,000 annually, for two years, to the Society.] After some considerable discussion, Mr. Frall demanded the yeas and nays on his motion.

Mr. DEHAVEN moved the bill be made the special order of the day on to-morrow at 10 1/2 o'clock. Adopted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE.

The Assistant Clerk of the House reported, by their titles, the several resolutions and bills originating in the Senate, concurred in by the House; also, by their titles, the several bills passed by the House, in which they asked the concurrence of the Senate.

SPECIAL ORDER.

An act to amend the charter of the Bank of Ashland.

Mr. RUST moved to amend by striking out the second section of the bill, and inserting another section in its place. Adopted.

Same—Moved to amend the 5th section of the bill. Adopted.

Mr. GROVER moved an amendment to the 2d section of the bill as amended.

Same—Moved an amendment to the 4th section.

ORDERS OF THE DAY.

Mr. RUST moved a suspension of the orders of the day in order to dispose of the bill under consideration. Adopted.

BILL TO AMEND THE CHARTER OF THE BANK OF ASHLAND.

After considerable discussion between Messrs. CISELLE, GROVER, MARSHALL, WHITAKER, RUST, and ANDREWS, Mr. Grover demanded the yeas and nays on his first amendment, and the vote resulted as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. Speaker, (Fisk), Anthony, Barker, Bales, Chambers, Darnaby, Davidson, Gibson, Glenn, Grover, Walker—11.

Nays—Messrs. Alexander, Andrews, Bruner, Cissell, Coffey, DeHaven, Denny, Grundy, Haycraft, Irwin, Johnson, Lyon, Marshall, McKee, Pennebaker, Rives, Rust, Taylor, Wait, Walton, Whitaker—21.

The amendment was rejected.

Mr. GROVER moved to amend his second amendment. Adopted.

The amendment as amended was adopted.

Mr. RUST moved to amend the bill by making the act in relation to Banks, passed last session, applicable to the Bank of Ashland. Adopted.

Mr. GROVER moved to print the bill as amended, and that it be made the special order for to-morrow at 11 1/2 o'clock. Rejected.

The bill was then placed upon its passage.

Mr. CISELLE moved that the third reading of the bill be dispensed with.

Mr. GROVER demanded the yeas and nays on the motion.

Mr. ANDREWS moved to amend the motion of Mr. Cissell and have the bill read now.

Mr. ALEXANDER moved the previous question. Adopted.

The bill as amended, was then read the third time, and placed upon its passage.

Mr. GROVER demanded the yeas and nays.

The bill was then passed by the following vote:

Yeas—Messrs. Alexander, Anthony, Andrews, Barker, Bruner, Cissell, Coffey, Denny, Gillis, Grundy, Harvick, Johnson, Lyon, Marshall, McKee, Pennebaker, Rives, Rust, Taylor, Wait, Walton, Whitaker—23.

Nays—Messrs. Speaker, (Fisk), Bales, Chambers, Darnaby, Davidson, DeHaven, Gibson, Glenn, Grover, Irwin, Walker—11.

LEAVE TO BRING IN BILLS.

Mr. ANDREWS—A bill for the benefit of J. T. and J. C. Ham. Finance.

Mr. RUST—A bill to amend the charter of the town of Ashland.

On motion, the Senate then adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THURSDAY, JAN. 12, 1860.

The House was opened with prayer at 10 o'clock by the Rev. Mr. Moore, of the Christian Church.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

REPORT.

The SPEAKER laid before the House the report of the Commissioners on the State Prison.

PETITIONS.

Were presented by Messrs. BROWN, (2), LYNE, CARLISLE, SHERKILL, CLEVELAND, M. J. COOK, ELLIS, RICHARDSON, CLEARY, H. H. SMITH, (2), ROBERTS, McELROY, (2), and LANNOM.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES.

Mr. LEACH—Circuit Courts—A Senate bill to change the time of holding the Circuit Courts in the 7th Judicial District. Passed.

Same—A bill for the benefit of Wm. Cromwell, Sheriff of Hickman county. Passed.

Same—A bill for the benefit of Thos. E. Read, Sheriff of Fulton county. Allows the Sheriff until the 1st Monday in May next to pay the revenue.

Mr. H. H. SMITH moved to extend the provisions of the bill for the benefit of the Sheriff of Hopkins county. Adopted.

Mr. HARRIS moved to amend by extending the provisions of the bill for the benefit of W. W. Webb, Sheriff of Letcher county. Adopted.

The bill was further amended to extend to the Sheriff of Green and Wayne. Adopted.

Mr. THOMAS moved to extend the provisions to all the Sheriffs of this Commonwealth. Adopted.

The bill as amended was then passed by the following vote: yeas 73, nays 12.

Same—A bill to change and regulate the time of holding the Circuit and County Courts of Galatin county. Passed.

INVITATION TO VISIT THE LEGISLATURE.

On motion of Mr. RODMAN, the House took up the Senate Resolutions inquiring Dr. Parrish and Dr. Bemis to visit the Legislature. Adopted.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES CONTINUED.

Mr. LEACH—Circuit Courts—A bill for the benefit of A. J. Mashaw, late Sheriff of Rockcastle county. Passed.

Mr. GALE—County Courts—A bill to amend the laws in relation to the Board of Supervisors of Tax—passed.

Same—A bill to change the time of holding the Quarterly Court of Jackson county—passed.

Same—A Senate bill to authorize the Surveyor of Gallatin county to be transferred—passed.

Mr. TEVIS—Revised Statutes—A bill concerning sheriffs and other collecting officers—passed.

Same—A bill authorizing the sale of slaves paroled out of the penitentiary by the Governor.

Mr. RICE moved to amend the bill by extending the provisions to five negroes.

Mr. BUCKNER opposed the amendment, as he thought it was clearly unconstitutional.

Mr. HUBBARD was also opposed to it, but would vote for a general bill to sell all the negroes in the State, if it could be done constitutionally.

Mr. RICE was opposed both to the bill and amendment, and introduced the amendment for the purpose of killing the bill.

The question being upon Mr. Rice's amendment, Mr. BUCKNER called for the yeas and nays, and the vote stood thus: yeas 10, nays 78. Rejected.

Mr. TERRY moved to strike out "Revised Statutes" and insert the "laws of the State." Adopted.

The vote was then taken upon the passage of the bill as amended, and the yeas and nays being called, the vote stood thus: yeas 86, nays 3—passed.

REVISOR STATUTES.

Mr. TEVIS—A Senate bill to amend chapter 37, article 5th, of the Revised Statutes. Passed.

Same—A bill to amend the act incorporating the Board of Managers of the Louisville House of Refuge.

Mr. FINN moved that the bill be recommitted. Adopted.

Mr. GEIGER—Propositions and Grievances—A bill authorizing the Christian County Court to subscribe stock to the Louisville and Nashville Railroad. Passed.

Same—A bill to incorporate Henry Lodge No. 101, I. O. O. F. Passed.

ORDERS OF THE DAY.

A House bill for the benefit of Reuben Gill, permitting him to reside without license in the State of Kentucky, was amended in the Senate by striking out "State of Kentucky" and inserting "Broken county." Amendment concurred in.

A House bill to amend the charter of the Ohio and New Orleans Telegraph Company. Passed the Senate with an amendment. Amendment concurred in.

A House bill for the benefit of Cager Creel, Sheriff of Adair county—amended in the Senate. Amendment concurred in.

A Senate bill to incorporate the Jacksonville Cemetery Company. Passed.

Sundry Senate bills in the orders of the day, were taken up and referred to the proper committees.

A Senate bill to incorporate a Turnpike Road Company from the Versailles and Nicholasville Turnpike Road to the Frankfort, Lexington, and Versailles Turnpike Road. Passed.

A Senate bill to revise and amend the laws in regard to the sectioned lands west of the Tennessee river. Passed.

A Senate bill to amend the charter of the town of Paris. Passed.

A Senate bill for the benefit of the jailer of Adair county. Passed.

An act to repeal all laws allowing pay on the skulls of wolves, wild cats, and red foxes. Passed into the orders.

A bill to provide additional voting places in the city of Louisville.

The question was upon the amendment to strike out 100, and insert 200, and strike out 250 and insert 350.

Mr. GOODLOE moved to pass the bill into the orders of the day. Adopted.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FEDERAL RELATIONS.

The question was upon the substitute offered by Mr. Burnam to the fourth resolution submitted by the committee.

The 4th resolution reads as follows, to-wit: Resolved, That the people of Kentucky believe and trust that the constitution of the United States, the laws now in force, and the decisions of the Supreme Federal Court, afford adequate and effective protection, to the inhabitants of the existing Territories in the enjoyment of their property; and until the contingency shall arise when it shall be manifest that the protection thus afforded is inadequate, they deem it the part of wise, patriotic, and conservative States to refrain from demanding of the Federal Congress legislation for the protection of any peculiar or specific property.

Mr. BURNAM'S substitute is as follows, to-wit: Resolved, That the people of Kentucky can, and do with justice claim, under the constitution of the United States and the decisions of the Supreme Court, that effective protection should be secured to the people of the existing territories, and such as may be hereafter acquired in the enjoyment of their property; and that it is the duty of the National Legislature, by appropriate laws, to secure this protection against all unfriendly territorial legislation or in the absence of such legislation as may be necessary to secure the same; and to this end, that the Federal Courts holden in the territories should be armed with power and authority, by appropriate remedies, to punish all felonies and misdemeanors perpetrated by wicked men upon the property and rights of their neighbors and countrymen, slaveholders included.

Mr. LEACH offered an amendment to the substitute. Rejected.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE.

A message was received from the Senate, by the Clerk, reporting the passage of sundry bills, and asking the concurrence of the House.

And on motion, the House took a recess until 2 1/2 o'clock, P. M.

EVENING SESSION.

The House resumed the consideration of Mr. Burnam's substitute for the fourth resolution as reported by the committee.

COMMITTEE ON FEDERAL RELATIONS.

Mr. FINN offered to amend Mr. Burnam's substitute as follows, to-wit: "That the Constitution of the United States, the decisions of the Courts, and the means of enforcing the same do not now afford adequate protection to the enjoyment of slave property in the Territories. Therefore it is the imperative duty of Congress to intervene for the protection of said property, and pass such laws as will secure any citizen of the United States in the full enjoyment of his slave property in all the Territories of the United States. And that we do assent to be the duty, and in the power of Congress to pass laws to punish citizens of a Territory for trading with slaves, or harboring them, or to do any other act that will prevent the owner in the full and complete enjoyment of his property in his slave in a Territory. And that our Representatives in Congress be requested and Senators instructed, if the Territorial Legislature shall fail to do so, advocate the immediate passage of such laws."

Mr. McELROY was in favor of Mr. Burnam's substitute as the strongest measure. He would vote for it first, and if he could not get it, he would vote for the next strongest and soon down the South has compromised the last thirty years, and always got the worst of the bargain. It was time to declare our rights—to tell the truth. He expected to be cheered for his vote; but if it was the last act of his life, he would vote for the substitute.

He warned his political friends not to be too tender-footed on the subject of slavery; for as soon as the Opposition party got ahead of the Democracy on this question; so soon would the Democracy go down. The old Whig party fell as soon as it deserted the South. The Know-Nothing party lost ground immediately after extracting the 12th plank from its platform. It was from the "Bloody first" where all the people stood together, and with him on this question.

He continued his argument in an able manner, but we have not space to further notice his remarks.

The substitute was further discussed by Mr. Ewing in its favor, and Messrs. Finn and Hodge in opposition to it, when

Mr. HODGE moved the previous question, which was sustained.

The question was then taken upon the amendment to the substitute, and the yeas and nays being called it was lost, by the following vote: yeas 3, nays 86.

The question was then taken upon the adoption of the substitute to the 4th resolution, as submitted by the committee; and the yeas and nays being demanded, the vote stood as follows, to-wit:

Yeas—Messrs. Alexander, Armstrong, Bohannon, Buckner, Burdette, Burton, Burnam, Clay, Cleveland, M. J. Cook, Downing, English, Ewing, Fisher, Fogle, Forman, Ganaway, Gilbert, Goodloe, Hines, Lackey, Luttrell, Lyne, McElroy, F. Neil, Richardson, Ritter, Rodman, Shaver, Sherrill, H. H. Smith, I. H. Smith, Sneed, Terry, Tevis, Thomas, Thompson, Tye, J. W. White, and Word—41.

Nays—Messrs. Speaker, (Meriwether), Abell, Acree, Brown, Burns, Burton, Carlisle, Chambers, Cleary, Coffey, John W. Cook, Croston, Day, Dobyns, Downing, Dunlap, Ellis, English, Gaidner, Gale, Geiger, Goheen, Gowdy, Green, Griffin, Gudgell, Haynes, Hill, Hitt, Hodge, Hunter, Husbands, Jacob, S. Johnson, Lannom, Leach, Linn, Mann, Massey, McFarland, McKee, Ratcliff, Rice, Riddell, Roberts, Salyers, Shawhan, Sheld, and Stivers—59.

The question was upon the adoption of Mr. Finn's substitute to the 1st, 2d, 3d, and 4th resolutions. Rejected.

The 1st, 2d and 3d resolutions were then taken up, and the yeas and nays being called, the vote stood thus:

Yeas—Messrs. Speaker, (Meriwether), Abell, Acree, Alexander, Armstrong, Bohannon, Burnam, Buckner, Burdette, Burton, Burnam, Clay, Cleveland, M. J. Cook, Downing, English, Ewing, Fisher, Fogle, Forman, Ganaway, Gilbert, Goodloe, Hines, Lackey, Luttrell, Lyne, McElroy, F. Neil, Richardson, Ritter, Rodman, Shaver, Sherrill, H. H. Smith, I. H. Smith, Sneed, Stivers, Terry, Tevis, Thomas, Thompson, Tye, and Word—58.

Nays—None.

The 4th resolution was then taken up and adopted by the following vote:

Yeas—Messrs. Speaker, (Meriwether), Abell, Acree, Brown, Burns, Burton, Carlisle, Chambers, Cleary, Coffey, John W. Cook, Croston, Day, Dobyns, Downing, Dunlap, Ellis, English, Gaidner, Gale, Geiger, Goheen, Gowdy, Green, Griffin, Gudgell, Haynes, Hill, Hitt, Hodge, Hunter, Husbands, Jacob, S. Johnson, Lannom, Leach, Linn, Mann, Massey, McElroy, McFarland, McKee, Ratcliff, Rice, Riddell, Roberts, Salyers, Shawhan, Sheld, and Stivers—59.

Nays—Messrs. Alexander, Armstrong, Bohannon, Buckner, Burdette, Burton, Burnam, Clay, Cleveland, M. J. Cook, Downing, English, Ewing, Fisher, Fogle, Forman, Ganaway, Gilbert, Goodloe, Hines, Lackey, Luttrell, Lyne, F. Neil, Ritter, Rodman, Shaver, Sherrill, H. H. Smith, I. H. Smith, Sneed, Stivers, Terry, Tevis, Thomas, Thompson, Tye, and Word—38.

The 5th, 6th, and 7th resolutions were then adopted by the following vote:

Yeas—Messrs. Speaker, (Meriwether), Abell, Acree, Alexander, Armstrong, Bohannon, Burnam, Buckner, Burdette, Burton, Burnam, Clay, Cleveland, M. J. Cook, Downing, English, Ewing, Fisher, Fogle, Forman, Ganaway, Gilbert, Goodloe, Hines, Lackey, Luttrell, Lyne, F. Neil, Ritter, Rodman, Shaver, Sherrill, H. H. Smith, I. H. Smith, Sneed, Stivers, Terry, Tevis, Thomas, Thompson, Tye, J. W. White, and Word—48.

Nays—None.

The 8th resolution was then taken up and passed by the following vote, to-wit:

Yeas—Messrs. Speaker, (Meriwether), Abell, Acree, Brown, Burns, Burton, Chambers, Cleary, Coffey, John W. Cook, Croston, Day, Dobyns, Downing, Dunlap, Ellis, English, Gaidner, Gale, Geiger, Goheen, Gowdy, Green, Griffin, Gudgell, Haynes, Hill, Hitt, Hodge, Hunter, Husbands, Jacob, S. Johnson, Lannom, Leach, Linn, Mann, Massey, McElroy, McFarland, McKee, Ratcliff, Rice, Riddell, Roberts, Salyers, Shawhan, Sheld, and Stivers—59.

Nays—Messrs. Alexander, Armstrong, Bohannon, Buckner, Burdette, Burton, Burnam, Clay, Cleveland, M. J. Cook, Downing, English, Ewing, Fisher, Fogle, Forman, Ganaway, Gilbert, Goodloe, Hines, Lackey, Luttrell, Lyne, F. Neil, Ritter, Rodman, Shaver, Sherrill, H. H. Smith, I. H. Smith, Sneed, Stivers, Terry, Tevis, Thomas, Thompson, Tye, and Word—38.

The 9th resolution was then taken up and adopted by the following vote:

Yeas—Messrs. Speaker, (Meriwether), Abell, Acree, Brown, Burns, Burton, Chambers, Cleary, Coffey, John W. Cook, Croston, Day, Dobyns, Downing, Dunlap, Ellis, English, Gaidner, Gale, Geiger, Goheen, Gowdy, Green, Griffin, Gudgell, Haynes, Hill, Hitt, Hodge, Hunter, Husbands, Jacob, S. Johnson, Lannom, Leach, Linn, Mann, Massey, McElroy, McFarland, McKee, Ratcliff, Rice, Riddell, Roberts, Salyers, Shawhan, Sheld, and Stivers—59.

Nays—Messrs. Alexander, Armstrong, Bohannon, Buckner, Burdette, Burton, Burnam, Clay, Cleveland, M. J. Cook, Downing, English, Ewing, Fisher, Fogle, Forman, Ganaway, Gilbert, Goodloe, Hines, Lackey, Luttrell, Lyne, F. Neil, Ritter, Rodman, Shaver, Sherrill, H. H. Smith, I. H. Smith, Sneed, Stivers, Terry, Tevis, Thomas, Thompson, Tye, and Word—38.

The 10th resolution was then taken up and adopted by the following vote:

Yeas—Messrs. Speaker, (Meriwether), Abell, Acree, Brown, Burns, Burton, Chambers, Cleary, Coffey, John W. Cook, Croston, Day, Dobyns, Downing, Dunlap, Ellis, English, Gaidner, Gale, Geiger, Goheen, Gowdy, Green, Griffin, Gudgell, Haynes, Hill, Hitt, Hodge, Hunter, Husbands, Jacob, S. Johnson, Lannom, Leach, Linn, Mann, Massey, McElroy, McFarland, McKee, Ratcliff, Rice, Riddell, Roberts, Salyers, Shawhan, Sheld, and Stivers—59.

Nays—Messrs. Alexander, Armstrong, Bohannon, Buckner, Burdette, Burton, Burnam, Clay, Cleveland, M. J. Cook, Downing, English, Ewing, Fisher, Fogle, Forman, Ganaway, Gilbert, Goodloe, Hines, Lackey, Luttrell, Lyne, F. Neil, Ritter, Rodman, Shaver, Sherrill, H. H. Smith, I. H. Smith, Sneed, Stivers, Terry, Tevis, Thomas, Thompson, Tye, and Word—38.

The 11th resolution was then taken up and adopted by the following vote:

Yeas—Messrs. Speaker, (Meriwether), Abell, Acree, Brown, Burns, Burton, Chambers, Cleary, Coffey, John W. Cook, Croston, Day, Dobyns, Downing, Dunlap, Ellis, English, Gaidner, Gale, Geiger, Goheen, Gowdy, Green, Griffin, Gudgell, Haynes, Hill, Hitt, Hodge, Hunter, Husbands, Jacob, S. Johnson, Lannom, Leach, Linn, Mann, Massey, McElroy, McFarland, McKee, Ratcliff, Rice, Riddell, Roberts, Salyers, Shawhan, Sheld, and Stivers—59.

Nays—Messrs. Alexander, Armstrong, Bohannon, Buckner, Burdette, Burton, Burnam, Clay, Cleveland, M. J. Cook, Downing, English, Ewing, Fisher, Fogle, Forman, Ganaway, Gilbert, Goodloe, Hines, Lackey, Luttrell, Lyne, F. Neil, Ritter, Rodman, Shaver, Sherrill, H. H. Smith, I. H. Smith, Sneed, Stivers, Terry, Tevis, Thomas, Thompson, Tye, and Word—38.

The 12th resolution was then taken up and adopted by the following vote:

Yeas—Messrs. Speaker, (Meriwether), Abell, Acree, Brown, Burns, Burton, Chambers, Cleary, Coffey, John W. Cook, Croston, Day, Dobyns, Downing, Dunlap, Ellis, English, Gaidner, Gale, Geiger, Goheen, Gowdy, Green, Griffin, Gudgell, Haynes, Hill, Hitt, Hodge, Hunter, Husbands, Jacob, S. Johnson, Lannom, Leach, Linn, Mann, Massey, McElroy, McFarland, McKee, Ratcliff, Rice, Riddell, Roberts, Salyers, Shawhan, Sheld, and Stivers—59.

Nays—Messrs. Alexander, Armstrong, Bohannon, Buckner, Burdette, Burton, Burnam, Clay, Cleveland, M. J. Cook, Downing, English, Ewing, Fisher, Fogle, Forman, Ganaway, Gilbert, Goodloe, Hines, Lackey, Luttrell, Lyne, F. Neil, Ritter, Rodman, Shaver, Sherrill, H. H. Smith, I. H. Smith, Sneed, Stivers, Terry, Tevis, Thomas, Thompson, Tye, and Word—38.

The 13th resolution was then taken up and adopted by the following vote:

Yeas—Messrs. Speaker, (Meriwether), Abell, Acree, Brown, Burns, Burton, Chambers, Cleary, Coffey, John W. Cook, Croston, Day, Dobyns, Downing, Dunlap, Ellis, English, Gaidner, Gale, Geiger, Goheen, Gowdy, Green, Griffin, Gudgell, Haynes, Hill, Hitt, Hodge, Hunter, Husbands, Jacob, S. Johnson, Lannom, Leach, Linn, Mann, Massey, McElroy, McFarland, McKee, Ratcliff, Rice, Riddell, Roberts, Salyers, Shawhan, Sheld, and Stivers—59.

Nays—Messrs. Alexander, Armstrong, Bohannon, Buckner, Burdette, Burton, Burnam, Clay, Cleveland, M. J. Cook, Downing, English, Ewing, Fisher, Fogle, Forman, Ganaway, Gilbert, Goodloe, Hines, Lackey, Luttrell, Lyne, F. Neil, Ritter, Rodman, Shaver, Sherrill, H. H. Smith, I. H. Smith, Sneed, Stivers, Terry, Tevis, Thomas, Thompson, Tye, and Word—38.

The 14th resolution was then taken up and adopted by the following vote:

Yeas—Messrs. Speaker, (Meriwether), Abell, Acree, Brown, Burns, Burton, Chambers, Cleary, Coffey, John W. Cook, Croston, Day, Dobyns, Downing, Dunlap, Ellis, English, Gaidner, Gale, Geiger, Goheen, Gowdy, Green, Griffin, Gudgell, Haynes, Hill, Hitt, Hodge, Hunter, Husbands, Jacob, S. Johnson, Lannom, Leach, Linn, Mann, Massey, McElroy, McFarland, McKee, Ratcliff, Rice, Riddell, Roberts, Salyers, Shawhan, Sheld, and Stivers—59.

Nays—Messrs. Alexander, Armstrong, Bohannon, Buckner, Burdette, Burton, Burnam, Clay, Cleveland, M. J. Cook, Downing, English, Ewing, Fisher, Fogle, Forman, Ganaway, Gilbert, Goodloe, Hines, Lackey, Luttrell, Lyne, F. Neil, Ritter, Rodman, Shaver, Sherrill, H. H. Smith, I. H. Smith, Sneed, Stivers, Terry, Tevis, Thomas, Thompson, Tye, and Word—38.

The 15th resolution was then taken up and adopted by the following vote:

Yeas—Messrs. Speaker, (Meriwether), Abell, Acree, Brown, Burns, Burton, Chambers, Cleary, Coffey, John W. Cook, Croston, Day, Dobyns, Downing, Dunlap, Ellis, English, Gaidner, Gale, Geiger, Goheen, Gowdy, Green, Griffin, Gudgell, Haynes, Hill, Hitt, Hodge, Hunter, Husbands, Jacob, S. Johnson, Lannom, Leach, Linn, Mann, Massey, McElroy, McFarland, McKee, Ratcliff, Rice, Riddell, Roberts, Salyers, Shawhan, Sheld, and Stivers—59.

Nays—Messrs. Alexander, Armstrong, Bohannon, Buckner, Burdette, Burton, Burnam, Clay, Cleveland, M. J. Cook, Downing, English, Ewing, Fisher, Fogle, Forman, Ganaway, Gilbert, Goodloe, Hines, Lackey, Luttrell, Lyne, F. Neil, Ritter, Rodman, Shaver, Sherrill, H. H. Smith, I. H. Smith, Sneed, Stivers, Terry, Tevis, Thomas, Thompson, Tye, and Word—38.

The 16th resolution was then taken up and adopted by the following vote:

Yeas—Messrs. Speaker, (Meriwether), Abell, Acree, Brown, Burns, Burton, Chambers, Cleary, Coffey, John W. Cook, Croston, Day, Dobyns, Downing, Dunlap, Ellis, English, Gaidner, Gale, Geiger, Goheen, Gowdy, Green, Griffin, Gudgell, Haynes, Hill, Hitt, Hodge, Hunter, Husbands, Jacob, S. Johnson, Lannom, Leach, Linn, Mann, Massey, McElroy, McFarland, McKee, Ratcliff, Rice, Riddell, Roberts, Salyers, Shawhan, Sheld, and Stivers—59.

Nays—Messrs. Alexander, Armstrong, Bohannon, Buckner, Burdette, Burton, Burnam, Clay, Cleveland, M. J. Cook, Downing, English, Ewing, Fisher, Fogle, Forman, Ganaway, Gilbert, Goodloe, Hines, Lackey, Luttrell, Lyne, F. Neil, Ritter, Rodman, Shaver, Sherrill, H. H. Smith, I. H. Smith, Sneed, Stivers, Terry, Tevis, Thomas, Thompson, Tye, and Word—38.

The 17th resolution was then taken up and adopted by the following vote:

Yeas—Messrs. Speaker, (Meriwether), Abell, Acree, Brown, Burns, Burton, Chambers, Cleary, Coffey, John W. Cook, Croston, Day, Dobyns, Downing, Dunlap,

